AT THE CAPITOL

THE CONFERENCE REPORT ON ing Democrats, and be elected. THE DEFICIENCY BILL

AGREED TO IN BOTH HOUSES TO-DAY.

But It Puts the Brand of Dishonesty en Uncle Sam's Brow.

News and Gossip.

The conferrees on the Deficiency Appropriation bill came to an agree ment this morning. The bill, as it passed the House, appropriated $5, 230,536; the Senate increased this appropriation by $2,644,956, making the amount carried by the bill as it passed the Senate $7,875,492.

The conferrees reduced this amount $1,209,233, leaving the total as agreed to in conference $6,666,250. The conferrees reinserted the appropriation of $10,000 for completing the public building at Winona, Minn., and agreed to the item of $10,000 for completing the building at Texarkana. The Item for town sites in Oklahoma was increased from $15,000 to $25,000.

The Senate appropriation of $1,239,-000 to pay French spotlation claims and the item of $12,000 for a steam vessel In Puget Sound were struck out.

The report was later presented to the Senate and explained by Mr. Hale. He said that the Senate conferrees had yielded the French spollations amend-ment because of the persistency of the House, but the subject would be taken up at another session.

The report was agreed to.

The conference report on the Tariff bill was presented and read at length.

The Senate is having a last word to say on the Tariff bill. It is a muitiple word, so to speak, and was first uttered by Mr. Morgan. Apparently he was prepared to talk for a long time. When he gets through, or, as a fellow-Senator said, when he becomes exhausted and has to quit the thread of discourse will be taken up by Mr. Carlisle. Mr. McPherson was ex-pected to speak, but he is not well. It is understood that no other Democrat

No Republican will, it is said, speak at length. Mr. Aldrich, when he pre-sented the report, said he hoped to reach a vote to-day. That, however, is improbable, if not impossible. A vote, however, will be reached to morrow, perhaps about 5 p. m.

The bill will then go to the President. He will sign it, of course, but the proprieties of the occasion will dethe proprieties of the occasion will de-mand that he at least make a pro-tense of considering it. He can keep it for ten days before signing it, or he could sign it the in-stant he receives it. He will probably pursue the safe middle course, and, getting it on Wednesday sign it and return it to the House, say, on Friday. Congress would then adjourn on Senator Paddock still insists that he will vote against the Tariff bill. Should he do so he would stand alone, for no other Republican will join him in voting nay. Last week nine Re-publican Senators were counted against it. Among them were those enators from the Northwest who want free binding twine and fought so hard for it that they were ulcknamed "highbinders." They have all yielded ex-cept Paddock. And even he, swearing he'll never vote that way, will yet vote exactly that way.

The Senate to-day passed Senate bill giving assent to leases of rights to mine coal in the Chectaw Nation.

The conference report on the bill to relieve settlers in Northero Pacific indemnity lands was agreed to.

In the House to-day Mr. Taylor (Ohlo) moved non-concurrence in Senate amendments to the bill to define and regulate the jurisdiction of United States courts. He wished the blil to go to conference with the expectation that it would go over until the next sexion.

After discussion the bill was laid aside temporarily.

The conference report on the Deli-ciency bill was taken up and after brief discussion was agreed to.

Before the House was called to order this morning Major McKinley, the Re-publican leader on the floor, approached the Hon. Richard Vaux and paid him a oat handsome compliment.

"The way in which they have treated you, ' said the Major to the Democratic reteran, 'is the meanest thing I ever saw in politics. I don't think there is another instance on record where a man coming to Congress for an nesuptred term has made the reputation you dendent Democrats. He has the matter under consideration and will announce its determination by next Friday. It s thought he will accept, and that if he does he will have the support of the Republicans as well as of all the blok-

A cynic might suggest that Mr. Vaux's appearance in the role of an independent candidate is the secret of McKinley's effective compliment. But the fact is that Mr. Vaux has made an exceptionally good reneri for a new member, and has fully sustained the high reputation be has already gained in other walks.

APPROPRIATION FOR FRENCH CLAIMS

Stricken Out Because of the Persistency of the House. Mr. Hale's Promise.

The first gun of the dissatisfied Northern protectionists was fired against the Tariff bill this afternoon in the House, when Representative Morse of Massachusetts introduced a bill, in creasing the duty on binding twine to one and a half cents per pound. Mr. Morse says that he has submitted his measure to Chairman McKishev, who neasure to Chairman McKinley, who thinks there is an excellent chance of its passage. The bill was referred to the Ways and Means Committee.

Colonel L. L. Pelk of North Carolina. the national lecturer of the alliance, will begin a campaign in Virginia this week and proceed southward, ending at Atlanta on the 30th of October. Next week he will be joined in North Caro-lina by Colonel Livingston, candidate for Congress in the Atlanta (Ga.) dis-

Next month the Alliance chiefs will go to Kansas, Colonel Livingston and Mr. Wilson being the delegates appointed to attend the State rally of the Kansas Alliance to be held at Topeka on October 15 and 10, at which time it is expected there will be fully 60,000 Alliance people at the Kansan Capital. Polk, Livingston and Wilson are among the big guns of the occasion.

From Kansas the Alliance chiefs will go to Illinois to attend the State rally of the Sucker Alliance men at Springfield on October 23. Thence they go to Atlanta to exhibit during the Exposition. Quite a comprehensive programme, Major Tom Glenn of Atlanta will be here to night. He comes to receive Secretary Blaine's answer to the invitation to attend the exposition in Atlanta.

Congressman Mason of Illinois is gratified at the kind way in which Southern papers refer to him since his able and courageous fight against the Conger Lard bill. He says the bill is dead, for good and all. Probably the Paddock Pure Food bill will supplant it. plant it.

Dr. Macune, the editor of the National Economist, the organ of the Alliance, is back from a visit to Georgia. He says the campaign is Georgia. He says the campaign is progressing satisfactorily in that State. He expressed confidence in the local leaders and managers, and though he would not say so directly, it was gathered from the drift of his talk that ex-Senator Norwood would be the Alliance choice for Senator.

Mr. Blair presented to the Senate to-day the petition of fifty-six citizens, resident on the United States Government reservation known as the Arlington estate, praying that a public school be established thereon, there being none at this time.

A bill was introduced in the House to day appropriating $250,000 to erect a monument to the "Courage, valor and patriotism of the American negro soldiers who fought in the Union Army during the war of the rebellion." Generals Benjamin F. Butler, O. O. Howard and W. W. Birney are namest as commissioners to carry out the provisions of the bill.

The Senate to-day passed the House oint resolution extending the act fixing rearages of general and special taxes now due the District if paid within a time specified to October 31, 1890.

NEARING THE CLOSE.

Hirchall's Fate Will Soon be Dacided by the Jury,

WOODSTOCK, Sept. 29,-It was a few minutes before 10 o'clock this morning when Mr. Blackstock began his address to the jury in Birchall's behalf. Every inch of space in the court room was occupied and the ladies, as heretofore, were present in large numbers. Long before the doors were opened there was a dense throng about the court house, and the constables who had been overpowered were compelled to use their long staffs on the heads of some fu order open a lane for the jury to pass

Before summing up Mr. Blackstock introduced three witnesses for the deense. James Costin, a farmer, living a haif mile from Princeton, was one of them, who said he saw the body of Henwell, and swore that the stranger was not the same man.

Mr. Blackstock made a powerful argument. Speaking of the influence of the papers on the case he said he was the last person to circumseribe or nar-row the liberty of the press. 'No one s more profoundly moved than I," add he, "by the solld advantages which accrue from the liberty the press enjoys, but I here say if a ventice of guilty is pronounced against that man it will not be upon the evilence which has been heard in your sex. It will be because the drag net of the newspapers has been abroad through the alimy slues of inuendoes r whisper interested malice and imagi-

He appealed to the jury to be on their guard against the influence of previous impressions. The prisoner, he said, was crippled at every turn, because he was not able to stand enormous ex-penses. He said that more than one isoner was on trial, the country's in stitutions were on trial; whether we shall return to mob law or whether the newspapers or the jury shall try cases.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29:-A. Washingon dispatch to the World says that the Administration, while at first disposed to uphold Minister Mizner in his course In the Barrundla affair, has found puble opinion in the matter too strong, and it is reported in the best informed official circles here now that the Prestdent and Mr. Blaine have fluxly settled the course they mean to follow in dispealog of the case, by holding that Min-Ister Migner has falled in diplomatic tact, judgment and discretion and pointedly inviting him to resign the means of a dispatch which will restate the position this Government holds respecting the nature and extent of the privilege of asylum afforded by the flag of the United States in the case of political refugees in Central and South America.

This intended dispatch will, it is said. be in form a reply to the recent dis-patches of Minister Mizner reporting the circumstances of the death of General Barrundia. It will review and expound the dispatch of Secretary Bayard In 1885 to Minister Hall upon the Gomez case. While not directly impeaching that dispatch as a theoretical statement of the rule of international law respecting port jurisdiction, or questioning its en-tire applicability to the particular case of Gomez, the forthcoming dispatch will explain that Mr. Bayarddid not, in effect or Intent, lay down any general rule or principle to govern all the various cases that might arise in Cen-tral and South America.

ing of which admits of no condons-

A circumstance that is said to excite the gravest displeasure of the President and Secretary of State is the unexplained neglect of Minister Mizner to improve the ampie opportunity afforded him between the departure of Barrundia from Mexico and his arrival at San Jose de Guatemala to come to some friendly arrangement with the Guatemalan Government by which the right of asylum to political refugees on American vessels might have been preserved with-cut prejudice to the strict legal rights of local jurisdiction or immediate danto the Guatemalan Government to re-frain from a resort to its naked legal rights a solution of the question would readily have been found that would have avoided the necessity of any attempted selzure of the person of Bar-randia while under the protection of the flag of the United States. Apart from any question of the personal safety of General Barrandia, the ad-ditional liamunity secured to American steam packets pursuing their trails with Spanish American countries by a with Spanish-American countries by a wise and proper conduct of the lasue by our Minister, would have been a ma-terial gain to our position in, and com-

One of the most serious grounds of censure upon Minister Mizner, say friends of the Administration, is the excessive weight he gave to this dispatch of Mr. Bayard to the disregard of other considerations equally apparent and momentous, and the ignor-
